

Milestone3:

We setted a table called food and there are 26 columns which includes 15 ingredients columns(includes 255 character, 9 instruction columns (255 characters)and 1 description column for recipe.

Since the ingredients and instruction always have amount of characters we have to split them into different columns. And we will try to add other tables to our databases, like the table for unit.

